

IEMA Graduate Award 2010

Sponsored by:

Brief

The IEMA Graduate Award, sponsored by the Land Securities Group, has been designed to reward outstanding achievement by a graduate for improving or significantly influencing improvements to environmental performance and/or practices for either their own or a clients' organisation.

Rules

- The 2010 IEMA Graduate Award is open to all graduates, irrespective of the size, turnover, sector and nature of their organisation. Graduates must be nominated for the award. Graduates cannot nominate themselves.
- Graduates can only be nominated by their employer or by clients/customers of the organisation.
- Organisations may nominate more than one graduate, but each project and/or performance improvement must be significantly different.
- Nominated graduates must have an environmental responsibility in a full-time, part-time or voluntary capacity.
- Graduates that have worked as part of a team to improve or significantly influence environmental performance improvements must have played the leading role and evidence to show this will be required.
- Nominated graduates must have graduated within the last 3 years from an environment-related course.
- Nominated graduates may be asked to provide proof of graduation at any time during the competition.*
Suitable proof can take the form of a copy of a valid graduation certificate, letter from education establishment or university transcript.*
- The winner will be responsible for any travel costs incurred to attend IEMA's Conference to receive the award.
- The prize monies will be awarded in Pounds Sterling (£).

Nominating a graduate

Nominations can be submitted in electronic format as a Microsoft Word or PDF document or by post and must be received by 5pm on Thursday 30th September 2010. – Address details below.

Nomination submissions should be accompanied with the front sheet that can be downloaded from www.iema.net/graduateaward.

Nominations should include a statement to illustrate and describe what the nominee has achieved to improve the organisation's environmental performance and/or environmental practice and supporting evidence such as client testimonials, photographs, further internal references, external references, certification, project reports and debriefs, data worksheets and logs.

The Prizes

The Winner of the IEMA Graduate Award 2010 will receive a £2000 cash prize, free attendance to IEMA's "Environment and Business: The Challenge and the Opportunity" Conference in September and 1 year's free IEMA Graduate membership.

Two runners-up will receive a £1000 cash prize, a free place at IEMA's Conference and 1 year's free Graduate membership.

A profile and short article about the winner and their achievements will appear in November's issue of IEMA's magazine 'the environmentalist' and e-newsletter IEMA Downloaded. A press release will also be submitted to IEMA's Media contacts list upon naming the individual that includes major newspapers, sector publications and websites.
