INSTITUTE OF ENVIRONMENTAL
MANAGEMENT & ASSESSMENT

A profession for environmental practitioners
Professional Development • Best Practice • Networking

Full Membership (MIEMA)

Full membership is the experience based level of IEMA membership and is suitable for experienced environmental practitioners and professionals. Successful candidates are entitled to use the suffix MIEMA.

Full members of the IEMA are able to apply for Chartered Environmentalist (CEnv). A joint application can be made for Full membership and CEnv.

In a recent membership survey, 82% of Full members stated that their membership was important to their career.

Who should become a Full member?

Full membership of the IEMA is a high level of membership and characterises an environmental professional that has established themselves as a competent environmental practitioner.

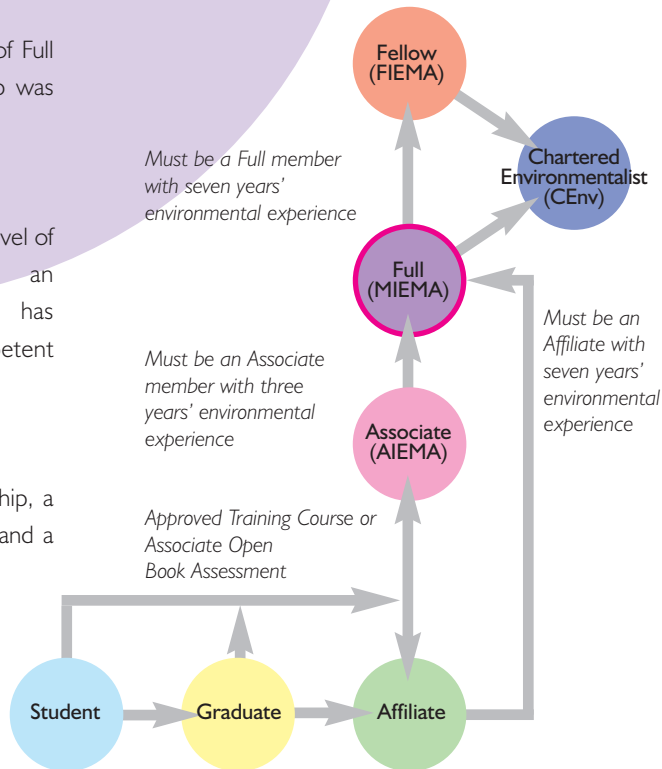

How to become a Full member

There are two routes to Full membership, a standard route for Associate members and a direct route for Affiliate members.

To apply you need to submit a written application and participate in an interview undertaken by peer assessors.

What support is available?

Support is available through FREE workshops, which provide guidance on the application process and preparation for the interview. Additional guidance is provided in the application pack. If you are working towards Full membership, contact the IEMA for details on the IEMA Mentoring scheme.
