

IEMA FOR BUSINESS (SMALL) – CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

You may already be looking into managing your organisation’s impact on the environment, perhaps you have given a member of staff responsibility for environmental management. You may be initiating systems to manage resources, such as your energy and materials, and understanding what your business needs to do to meet legislative requirements. Whatever your motivation, we want to keep you ahead of the game

Benefit	Details
Affiliation	The IEMA logo, presented on your documents, your website, and any tenders etc) helps demonstrate your commitment to environment and sustainability performance. We will also add your logo, company biography and link to your website from ours to help promote our partnership.
EMS Implementation	To support your organisation’s environmental management systems, you get instant access our EMS Webinar Series. These easy-to-access webinars will support your team with implementation and developing an effective EMS. We will also provide you with a staged guide book and resource templates to help you set up and develop an effective environmental management system.
Online Resources	As a Corporate Member you will be able to log into our website and access a wide range of resources, publications, webinars, and networks that will support your organisation’s knowledge and skills.
Legislation Updates	We will keep you ahead of the game with regular information on legislation updates to ensure your organisation remains compliant.
Affiliate Membership	You can take advantage of a one-year subscription for one member of your team to join IEMA at Affiliate Membership level. This is IEMA’s entry level of membership and marks the starting point from which members can go on to progress their professional development.
Multi Membership Discount	We'd like to welcome your colleagues into our worldwide membership so they can access all the learning, updates and connections they need to stay informed and compliant. When 5 or more of your team join us at one of the easy-to-achieve entry levels of membership - your organisation will pay just half the standard fee for each new member.
Discounts	Not only do corporate members get priority invitations to key events and publications as a corporate member you are also entitled to further discounts of up to 20% on recruitment advertising in the environmentalist and delegates bookings at our events.

Account Manager

Your IEMA Relationship Manager will be there to support you and to ensure your organisation is able to access the support and benefits it needs to reach its objectives.