

IEMA North West Regional Network Event

Webinar:
Flood Resilience
in the North West

12:30 - 1:30pm
24th November

Host – Welcome

IEMA North West Regional Network

Helen Travers
Environmental Consultant
Arcadis
(IEMA NWSG member)

Mark Sullivan
QSE Manager
Blackburn Chemicals
(IEMA NWSG member)

Claire Brown
PhD Researcher – CDT
Power Networks
University of Manchester
(IEMA NWSG member)

IEMA North West Regional Network & Steering Group

- Covers Cumbria; Lancashire; Merseyside; Greater Manchester & Cheshire
- Steering Group of 14 volunteer members

On behalf of IEMA NW region we:

- Deliver events on a range of topic areas and activities
- Supports membership development
- Engage with regional universities, businesses and stakeholders

If you would like to contribute to activity in your region, get in touch through regions@iema.net

Today's Programme

- Welcome and North West Context
- Housekeeping
- Our speakers: introductions
- Presentations
- Q&A
- Close

Housekeeping

- The webinar will last for approximately 1 hour
- Each speaker will deliver approx. 10-15 minute talk
- Q&A session at the end
- If you have question as we go through, please add to the chat
- Please note the webinar (inc. Q&A session) will be recorded & added to IEMA website

Today's Speakers

Jane Phillips
Environment Agency
Business Flood Resilience

Christina Worsley
The Flood Hub
Resources and assistance available to promote Flood Resilience

Today's Speakers

Sarah Demetriou
Arcadis

The Role of Flood Modelling in Resilient Design
(Case Study: A57 Trans-Pennine Project)

Jo Bradley
Stormwater Shepherds

Potential mitigation measures available to businesses and construction (SUDS)
(How they can also benefit water quality).

Transforming the world
to sustainability

Q&A – Questions to the Panel

Jane Phillips
Environment
Agency

Christina Worsley
The Flood Hub

Sarah Demetriou
Arcadis

Jo Bradley
Stormwater
Shepherds