

Lead Environmental Auditor

Overview:

Undertake this training course and understand the principles of becoming a lead Environmental Auditor, a qualification which also contributes towards IEMA Environmental Auditor registration.

As lead auditor, you will remain at the forefront of EMS strategy and will drive efficiency in line with ISO 14001, meaning you can play a pivotal role in ensuring your organisation is committed to environmental best practice.

WHO IS IT FOR?

- This course is designed for those individuals conducting 1st, 2nd and 3rd party EMS audits or other environmental audits.
- All attendees must be familiar with the text of ISO 14001 (or EMAS in the EU).

KEY FEATURES:

- Equips you with the knowledge and skills to lead environmental audits effectively.
- Take part in practical case-study based audit exercises to put the theory into practice.
- Gain points towards IEMA Environmental Auditor registration to join a global community of auditors.

LEARNING HOURS	LEARNING OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT
40 hours (5 days)	On successful completion of this course, a learner will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand and be able to evaluate current environmental issues, their inter-relationships and how they relate to the auditing process • Understand and be able to apply techniques used in the identification of environmental aspects & impacts • Understand, be able to evaluate, and explain the significance of environmental impacts • Understand and be able to analyse and validate environmental objectives, targets, management, controls and monitoring regimes relating to a range of industry types • Understand, be able to identify, and describe the relationship and differences between a range of audit types • Identify and be able to evaluate key pieces of environmental legislation and other compliance requirements; and define their relevance in the context of environmental auditing • Describe and explain the roles and responsibilities of the auditor, the audit team and other relevant bodies • Plan, initiate, implement, manage, monitor and review a broad range of audit programmes • Demonstrate the main competences required for leading an environmental audit and the main competencies required in an audit team 	Combination of continual assessment via practical exercises, case studies, presentations and an end of course examination