Membership Applications
IEMA welcomes applications from people who are interested in and working in the environmental and sustainability arena. Submitting a membership application for a specific grade does not guarantee membership at that grade. Our member levels can be found on our membership page on our website www.iema.net.

Data Protection
For your security and peace of mind, IEMA complies with the General Data Protection Regulation. The personal data that you supply will be used to process your application and/or membership subscription and as a member of IEMA your data will be used for marketing, statistical and analytical purposes and to administer your membership.

In disclosing your personal details to us, you agree that we may process and in particular may disclose your personal data as required by law to any partners or third parties who may use your personal data to:

- Undertake quality administration in relation to the course and/or qualification for which you are registered including providing you with a certificate on successful completion of your course and/or qualification or the specified units of it.
- Contact you directly in relation to quality control purposes undertaken for the course and/or qualifications for which the learner is registered
- Inform you of products or services offered by partners and third parties
- Disclose your personal details to third parties for the purposes of providing prizes, remunerations and qualifications for learners
- Administer requests of reasonable adjustments under the Reasonable Adjustment and Special Considerations Policy
- Carry out statistical analysis on an anonymised basis which may be carried out by us or selected third parties
- Monitor on an anonymised basis equal opportunities relating to ethnicity or disability or other such monitoring purposes
If you wish to obtain a copy of your personal data held by us, then please write to us at IEMA, City Office Park, Tritton Road, Lincoln LN6 7AS, UK. You will be asked to provide proof of your identity and for information that might help to locate the information you are seeking.

If you believe the information we have for you is out of date or incorrect, please update your information on our website www.iema.net or contact the Membership Services team on +44(0) 1522 540 069.

Membership Fees
Membership of IEMA across all of our grades and access to member services is conditional upon the payment of the appropriate membership fee. All fees are displayed on our website www.iema.net. The fees quoted are for individual membership only.

You may make a one-off payment for a year’s membership by credit or debit card or an annual direct debit payment.

We reserve the right to increase our membership fees on an annual basis and updates will be placed on our website www.iema.net.

Members are responsible for covering all charges for the sending and receiving of payment, ensuring IEMA receive the full amount due in British Pound (GBP).

VAT
VAT is not charged on membership fees, but it is charged on additional services e.g., for administering your entry on a professional register, or for processing a charge from the Society for the Environment. Whilst most of our services are provided to you within your membership fee, we are required by HMRC to also charge VAT on events where a fee has been levied, such as a regional conference or a specific webinar. This will also apply to non-members who would like to join you at an event.

Membership Cards
As a sustainability organisation, IEMA does not automatically issue membership cards however, members can opt to receive one by contacting our Membership Team at the point of renewal.

Upgrades
Please visit our website at www.iema.net to learn more about what upgrading means for the next stage of your development and membership of IEMA.

Membership Renewals
Your membership will become eligible for renewal fees one year following your original joining or renewal payment. Your membership will be continued unless a written cancellation (via letter or email) is received by the Membership Team at least one week before your renewal date.

The amount due from you in respect of the next payment year will be included in your renewals notification prior to the end of your membership year. If you pay by Direct Debit, fees will be taken at the new rate unless we receive notice of change of membership or cancellation.
Professional Conduct
All members of IEMA are required to uphold a high standard of professional conduct and adhere to IEMA’s Code of Professional Conduct. If IEMA receives a complaint about a member and their conduct, or is aware of potential misconduct, we will always investigate the matter fairly and thoroughly in accordance with our Professional Conduct and Discipline Process. IEMA Members are required to comply fully and constructively with any investigation IEMA conduct.

Access IEMA
By subscribing to Access IEMA, you will receive a four-month free taster subscription, having access to the benefits of IEMA. During this time, you do not have an active membership and therefore will not have professional recognition, you do not have the right to vote as a member, attend IEMA’s AGM or be entitled to a paper copy of Transform.

Unpaid Subscription Fees
IEMA is a not for profit organisation and unpaid subscription fees therefore impact directly on our ability to plan and provide services for our members. Consequently, IEMA reserves the right to take necessary steps to recover unpaid subscription fees, including legal fees.

In any circumstances where the subscription fees remain unpaid following the due date for payment, IEMA reserves the following rights:

  a. To demand immediate payment of any outstanding sums due
  b. To withdraw the facility to make subsequent payments by instalment
  c. To charge an administration fee of £25 plus any costs of recovery
  d. To add any interest to any outstanding amounts at 4% above the Bank of England base rate
  e. To cancel your membership

If you anticipate any problems with the payment of your subscription, please contact the Membership Services team at the earliest opportunity to discuss. In particular, please ensure that you contact the team if you intend to cancel your Direct Debit instruction and/or use another form of payment otherwise IEMA will incur bank charges for seeking a Direct Debit payment without an active mandate.

If you have asked us to collect from a specific account and our request is returned to the bank as ‘unpaid’ on more than 3 occasions, we will ask you for details of another bank account from which IEMA can successfully collect your payment and reserve the right to pass on any administration charges that may have been incurred as a result.

You agree that any outstanding amounts on your membership account must be cleared on termination and for the avoidance of doubt, before you can be reinstated as a member of IEMA.

Membership Reinstatements
Depending on how long you have been away, and the grade that you wish to rejoin at, there are different requirements and fees for reinstating your membership. Please visit our website for full details www.iema.net.
Membership Cancellations
You can cancel your membership at any time however, your membership is for one year and IEMA do not provide refunds in any circumstances. Your membership will automatically be cancelled if we do not receive payment from you and future reinstatement may incur a fee. Please see our website for more information www.iema.net.

Refunds
IEMA does not refund members once payment has been received in any circumstances.

Reduced Fees
Reduced rates are available to members in special circumstances. IEMA has the right to request proof of eligibility.

Membership Offers
Sometimes IEMA will provide special offers to members that cannot be applied retrospectively. Prices will revert to normal at the end of the offer period or at renewal.

Membership Preferences
When you join IEMA, you provide us with your personal details, including your address, phone number and email. By giving us this information, you are agreeing that IEMA may contact you from time to time by email, SMS text message or post, with information related to services, products and events.

You may at any time opt out of receiving communications from IEMA by visiting our website www.iema.net.

Privacy
At IEMA we take your privacy very seriously. Our Privacy Policy relates to our use of any personal information you provide to us online, via phone or text, by email, in letters or correspondence. Our full policy can be reviewed by visiting our website www.iema.net.

Complaints
IEMA is wholly committed to providing members with a high-quality service and will at all times endeavor to meet your needs. Therefore, if there is a problem we need you to tell us. We hope that we can address any issue that arises before it evolves into a reason for complaint.

We value your feedback, both positive and negative and we take complaints very seriously. You may be assured that all problems and complaints will be dealt with both courteously and promptly, so that the matter is resolved as quickly as possible. IEMA intend to respond to your concerns in a professional and efficient manner and would ask that your dealings with IEMA staff also reflect this approach.

If you are an IEMA member and you are dissatisfied with the service you have received, or are unhappy with how you have been treated by a member of IEMA staff, please contact us as soon as the matter arises either by email at info@iema.net or by calling our Membership Services team on +44(0) 1522 540 069. The individual dealing with your enquiry will endeavor to rectify the situation immediately or if unable to, can advise you of the most appropriate person to speak to.

Alternatively, you may wish to write to us. We aim to respond to all written comments and complaints within 7 working days. If we feel the matter will take longer to investigate, we will acknowledge receipt of your letter and indicate when you can expect to receive a full and final response.

Any written complaints should be addressed to the Membership and Standards Manager, IEMA, City Office Park, Tritton Road, Lincoln LN6 7AS UK or emailed to info@iema.net FAO Membership and Standards Manager.

By viewing or downloading any information and file format from the www.iema.net website you agree that the following terms and conditions are applicable:

Any information in PDF format is licensed to a sole named user who is permitted to install a single electronic copy of it for use on a single computer.

A sole licensed user of downloaded material from the www.iema.net website may print off a single hard copy for his own, non-commercial purposes. In keeping with the environmental standard of IEMA we would appreciate this copy to be in black and white.

You must not modify the paper or digital copies of any materials you have printed off or downloaded in any way and you must not use any illustrations, photographs, video or audio sequences or any graphics separately from any accompanying text.

IEMA is not aware of any inherent risk of viruses in the PDF files of IEMA documents at the time that they are downloaded. IEMA has exercised due diligence to ensure so far as is practicable that such files do not contain viruses. The PDF files supplied may contain embedded typefaces. In accordance with Adobe’s licensing policy, these files may be printed or viewed but shall not be edited unless the typefaces which are embedded are licensed to and installed on the computer performing the editing. In downloading these files, parties accept the responsibility of not infringing Adobe’s licensing policy.

The user accepts that the operation and use of these files is done so at the user’s risk. IEMA does not accept and is not liable for any loss or damage which may be suffered from their operation or use. Adobe is a trademark of Adobe Systems Incorporated.

Network licenses – users who wish to place the downloaded IEMA material on an internal network or intranet are invited to apply to IEMA. Permission to reproduce extracts and further information on the licensing of IEMA documents are also available.
Our status (and that of any identified contributors) as the authors of material on our site must always be acknowledged.

You must not use any part of the materials on our site for commercial purposes without obtaining a license to do so from us or our licensors.

If you print off, copy or download any art of our site in breach of these terms of use, your right to use our site will cease immediately and you must at our option return or destroy any copies of materials you have made.

Complaints against partners and third parties
Whilst we always try to ensure that staff, local examiners, Assessors and EQAs carry out their duties in a professional and responsible manner there may be exceptional instances where a learner or a training partner is unhappy with their conduct. In these circumstances please follow our complaints process.

Changes to our Terms and Conditions
IEMA reserves the right to change these terms and conditions at any time. The most recent version of these terms is binding and can be found on our website www.iema.net.
